

Will Lyman is a stage veteran of over 40 years, having worked with multiple companies in his home town of Boston and around the country at the Denver Center Theatre Company, Hartford Stage, Pennsylvania Stage, American Place, George Street Playhouse, NJ Shakespeare Festival, Champlain Shakespeare Festival, Portsmouth Playhouse and Off Broadway (The Novelist, Trinity, The Passion of Dracula, The Grinding Machine.) He has narrated with the National Symphony at the Kennedy Center, the Cleveland Symphony at the Blossom Pavilion and the Boston Symphony Orchestra and Handel and Haydn Society at Symphony Hall.

Recent notable performances include DollHouse, Exits and Entrances (Norton Award), The Clean House and The Ice Breaker at New Rep Theatre, Nicholas Nickleby at the Lyric, All My Sons at the Huntington, Timon of Athens with Actors' Shakespeare Project, The Wrestling Patient with Speakeasy, BPT, 40 Magnolias, and at Boston Playwrights' Theatre, The Oil Thief (Norton Award,) and King of the Jews. He is chairman of the Board of the Commonwealth Shakespeare Company, for whom he has previously worked in Hamlet, The Tempest and Julius Caesar. Many years ago, he performed various roles at various times in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest at the Charles Playhouse.

He has been the narrator of the multi-award-winning PBS series FRONTLINE since 1984.

His film career, which began with a bit part in Jaws, includes Little Children, What Doesn't Kill You, Mystic River, The Siege, A Perfect Murder, Welcome to the Dollhouse, Hostile Takeover and others less memorable. Television series regular: William Tell in 72 episodes of Crossbow, Colonel Atkins in Threat Matrix, John Deerborn in Hull High and the dying and deceased President Bridges in Commander in Chief (recurring.) Series Guest: Spenser: For Hire twice, Law and Order twice, Ed, Murder She Wrote. Movies for TV: Our Fathers, Meltdown, George Washington and Three Sovereigns for Sarah. Soaps: Another World, The Doctors, Loving, Ryan's Hope, All My Children.